

CEBIB Student participates in UNESCO-Merck Africa Research Summit 2016, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia

CEBIB MSc. Biotechnology student, Ms. Sharon Chepkemai Towett, participated in UNESCO-Merck Africa Research Summit held on 28th - 29th November, 2016 at Capital Hotel, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. The second UNESCO-Merck Africa Research Summit 2016 was organised by Merck, the world's oldest pharmaceutical and Chemical company.

UNESCO MARS 2016 is scientifically supported by the University of Cambridge (United Kingdom) and the Institute Pasteur (France). This year the summit was conducted in partnership with the African Union and was hosted under the patronage of the Federal Government of Ethiopia. The theme of the Summit "Infectious Diseases and Women Health."